BCA QUALITY EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2021

Default Points

The points scored may be reduced by up to 4 default points for every valid complaint on workmanship received by BCA.

A valid complaint refers to any feedback or complaint related to workmanship issues received in writing directly by BCA or indirectly through other channels/media. The default points take into consideration severity of the complaint, number of valid complaints and nature of the defects.

For developers/builders with projects of national significance with significant negative feedback on quality, the award may be deferred or withheld.

Notwithstanding deduction of points, the award may still be withheld if conferring the award may result in adverse publicity to the awards, BCA and/or the construction industry.

Note:

- 1. Default points accorded in the year of application shall not be taken into consideration again for application of award in subsequent year, provided the defect has been resolved or not re-surfaced again.*
- 2. The decision of BCA on the default points shall be final and binding. No reasons shall be given.*

ANNOUNCEMENT OF AWARDS

The BCA Quality Excellence Awards will be conferred on applicants that have satisfied the requirements laid down for the Awards. Winners of the Awards will receive a specially designed trophy or plaque.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Applicants shall agree to abide by the following terms and conditions governing the Awards:

1. All materials submitted in connection with the entries shall become the property of Building and Construction Authority (the BCA).
2. Award recipients are expected to share information on their successful projects with the construction industry. This sharing of information may take the form of presentations, seminars, exhibitions and/or the hosting of company visits.
3. Materials (including but not limited to photographs) might be submitted in connection with or subsequent to the entries or at any time after the conferment of the awards. BCA reserves the right to use the abovementioned material in any way it deems fit, without payment of fees or royalties, and regardless of the results of the award. This includes, but is not limited to, the presentation, publication and/or exhibition of photographs, materials and/or names.
4. Applicants shall fully indemnify BCA and hold it harmless, against any claim, liability, responsibility or damages which may result from BCA's use of the materials submitted by the entrants in connection with or subsequent to the entries or at any time after the conferment of the awards.
5. The Assessment Committee reserves the right to defer judgment if at any time during the assessment process, any development or incident arise concerning any party linked to the applicant or project, which is likely to result in negative publicity to the award, BCA, the construction industry and/or other awards or schemes administered by BCA. The duration of any such deferment shall be at the sole discretion of the Assessment Committee.
6. The BCA reserves the right to withdraw or withhold any award, if in the opinion of the BCA, the conferment of such award might result in any negative publicity to the award, BCA, the construction industry and/or other awards or schemes administered by BCA. Where there is more than one applicant for the award per project, BCA may withdraw or withhold the award in respect of one or more applicants notwithstanding that the other applicant(s) are conferred the award. The duration and extent of any such withdrawal or withholding shall be at the sole discretion of the BCA.
